

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Responsibilities accepted by schools include:

1. That access to the Schools website will be protected by usernames and passwords, the responsibility for which remains with the originating school.
2. Ensuring copyright is not violated by arranging the completion and retention of appropriate Am Baile Schools' copyright and permission form. When necessary written permission should be sought by the school from originating organisations or individuals. Requests may be made to see these forms on an adhoc basis to ensure that this requirement is met.
3. The retention of the Am Baile Schools' permission forms in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998 and be available should a legal requirement occur. No disposal of the forms to take place without prior consent.
4. Permission obtained from a parent or guardian for the use of material and images of young people under 16 years of age and in addition permission obtained from the young person where the young person is over 12 years old.
5. That the material provided and any images taken will be used to create a resource for educational and lifelong learning in a website environment. This will be included in the school's project and published on The Highland Council's Am Baile website available throughout the world and until further notice.
6. That the school has the right to remove the project from the website at any time.
7. That there will be no charge to The Highland Council for use of this contribution and any accompanying images.
8. That this agreement does not prevent you from allowing other people or organisations to use the material provided that Am Baile's use is not affected.
